

USING CODES AND STANDARDS IN YOUR CLASSROOM JUST GOT EASIER

When important Codes and Standards are a necessary part of your presentations and curriculum notes, having quick access to up-to-date information saves you time in your classroom. CSA Group's Interactive Standards, available for both C22.1 – Canadian Electrical Code, Part I, and B149.1 – Natural Gas and Propane Installation Code, gives you this easy access.

As an educator, we recognize that being on the same page as your colleagues helps to ensure consistency in teaching methodology and classroom success. That's why we are offering special pricing for multi-users for a limited time – giving multiple instructors access to the Interactive experience.

Just download on your iOS or Android device and start using today!
